

George Jeffrey/Sherbrooke Community Day Care offers licensed full and part-time daycare for children aged 18-months to 5 years. The Day Care also offers programming for school-aged children, 6 to 12 years. Our educators encourage children to learn through spontaneous play to help them develop physically, socially, and emotionally.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATORS, Full-Time, Part-Time & Supply

George Jeffrey/Sherbrooke Community Day Care is currently seeking applications for full-time, part-time, and supply educator positions. We are looking for flexible, enthusiastic, energetic and reliable individuals to work with our team. Candidates who are creative and dedicated, with strong communication and programming skills in a play-based, emergent environment are encouraged to apply.

Qualifications

- Diploma or degree in Early Childhood Education, and registration with the College of Early Childhood Educators (RECE)
- Diploma or degree in child and youth care, recreation and leisure services, or a member in good standing with the Ontario College of Teachers (OCT) will be considered where applicable.
- Must provide a satisfactory Police Vulnerable Sector Check
- First aid with Child/Youth CPR training is required
- Able to work effectively as a team player
- Enthusiasm for working with children
- Good communication skills, both verbal and written

If you share a passion for enriching children's lives, we invite you to submit an application. Deadline for submission is November 29th, 2017.
